

A Course in Miracles - Lesson 60

1. These ideas are for today's review:

(46) God is the love in which I forgive.

2. God does not forgive because He has never condemned. The blameless cannot blame, and those who have accepted their innocence see nothing to forgive. Yet forgiveness is the means by which I will recognise my innocence. It is the reflection of God's love on earth. It will bring me near enough to Heaven that the Love of God can reach down to me and raise me to my home.

(47) God is the Strength in which I trust.

3. It is not my own strength through which I forgive. It is through the strength of God in me, which I am remembering as I forgive. As I begin to see, I recognise his reflection on earth. I forgive all things because I feel the stirring of His strength in me. And I begin to remember the love I chose to forget, but Which has not forgotten me.

(48) There is nothing to fear.

4. How safe the world will look to me when I can see it! It will not look anything like what I imagine I see now. Everyone and everything I see will lean toward me to bless me. I will recognise in everyone my dearest Friend. What could there be to fear in the world which I have forgiven and which has forgiven me?

(49) God's voice speaks to me all through the day.

5. There is not a moment in which God's Voice ceases to call on my forgiveness to save me. There is not a moment in which His Voice fails to direct my thoughts, guide my actions, and lead my feet. I am walking steadily on towards truth. There is nowhere else I can go because God's Voice is the only voice and the only guide that has been given to His Son.

(50) I am sustained by the love of God.

6. As I listen to God's Voice, I am sustained by His Love. As I open my eyes, His Love lights up the world for me to see. As I forgive, His Love reminds me that His Son is sinless. And as I look upon the world with the vision He has given me, I remember that I am His Son.
